

2020 IFIC ANNUAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

LOUIS MORISSET

President and CEO

Autorité des marchés financiers (“AMF”)

Me Louis Morisset has served as President and CEO of the Autorité des marchés financiers (“AMF”) since July 2013.

At the national level, Me Morisset has chaired the Canadian Securities Administrators (CSA), the council of the securities regulators of Canada’s provinces and territories, since April 2015.

At the international level, Me Morisset represents the AMF, in particular, on the board of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and has contributed significantly to many IOSCO initiatives over the past several years.

Me Morisset has been a member of the board of directors of the Institute for governance of private and public organizations (IGOPP) since 2009, Finance Montréal since 2010 and the Collège des administrateurs de sociétés (CAS) since 2013. From May 2007 to March 2014, he was also a member of the Accounting Standards Oversight Council (AcSOC).

Me Morisset graduated in law from the University of Montréal and was called to the Bar of the Province of Québec in 1996. Prior to joining the AMF, he was a partner at the law firm Stikeman Elliott LLP, where he acquired extensive experience in securities law, corporate finance, and public and private mergers and acquisitions.

Me Morisset is a certified corporate director, having completed the university corporate governance certification program at Laval University’s Collège des administrateurs de sociétés.
